

Miss Krista

Office Manager

As a former dance instructor herself, Krista feels at home in the dance studio. Working in the office allows her the opportunity to support our dance families and the staff. Krista has been with Visions from the beginning, both as a dance parent and staff member. "I am proud to work with this amazing group of women and love to help our dance families have the best experience at Visions."