

Miss Jen

Jen has always had a passion for dance, cheerleading, and working with children. She danced for 12 years and continued her love of cheerleading through college, cheering competitively for 7 years.

During the day, Jen works as a Paraprofessional in a local school district, where she enjoys supporting and working with students. Her experience working with children in both the classroom and the studio has given her a true passion for helping kids learn, grow, and build confidence.

Jen has also been a cheerleading coach for 6 years, helping young athletes develop strength, flexibility, teamwork, confidence, and a love for performing.

For the past 3 years, Jen has been part of the Visions Dance Company family, where she teaches Acro, Hip Hop, and Little Movers. She loves creating fun, energetic classes where dancers can challenge themselves, learn new skills, express their individuality, and most importantly, have fun!

Visions is especially meaningful to Jen because her daughters also dance at the studio. She feels incredibly lucky to be able to watch her daughters grow as dancers while sharing her own love of dance by teaching. Outside of dance, Jen loves watching her son play baseball and basketball.

Jen is grateful to be part of the Visions family and loves that she gets to combine so many things she loves — working with children, dancing, teaching, and inspiring the next generation of dancers!
