

Miss Laura

Artistic Director

Laura Johnson is a native of Virginia. She graduated from Radford University with a BFA in Dance and Contemporary concentration. She has had the opportunity to perform off Broadway, in Florence Dance Week in Italy, Big Range Dance Festival in Texas, as well as around the East Coast with danah bella Dance Works and Opus 1 Contemporary Dance Company. She recently co-founded Shift Movement Collective and continues to perform and collaborate throughout New York and Philadelphia. Laura has presented choreography at The Kennedy Center, Lincoln Center, The National Cherry Blossom Festival, and Disney World. She also serves as adjunct faculty for the Hill School.