

Miss Ashley

Ashley began dancing at the young age of 5. Miss Ashley began her formal training in her hometown of Fredericksburg, VA, where she attended Fredericksburg Ballet Centre. There she studied Ballet, Jazz, Tap, Musical Theater, Lyrical and Competitive dance. After highschool, she attended Radford University where she received a Bachelors of Fine Arts with a Modern concentration. She has recently moved to Philadelphia to further her dance career. Miss Ashley currently teaches at several local dance studios. She not only enjoys teaching but performing them as well in the dance company, Roger Lee Dance. She is very excited to continue her lifelong journey with dance.